

Since the no-call rule has gone into effect i have enjoyed quiet evenings. If i want to purchase a product or donate to an organization i will do it on my own terms. I view these solicitations as a violation to my privacy. i don't have a problem with just hanging up, i just don't want the hassle to begin with.